THE STORY SO FAR

A Letterkenny welcome since 1984.

The Mount Errigal Hotel first opened its doors in March 1984, taking its name from Donegal's highest and most distinctive mountain. From the beginning, the hotel was created as a place where visitors and local people could meet, celebrate, rest and feel genuinely welcome.

The McEniff family took ownership in 1985, beginning a family-run tradition that has continued through decades of change in Letterkenny and Irish tourism. As the town grew into the lively centre of the north-west, the Mount Errigal grew with it - welcoming leisure guests, business travellers, touring groups and generations of Donegal families.

The hotel continues to change with the times, with refreshed bedrooms, contemporary dining at Lillie's Restaurant, relaxed hospitality in Café Boulevard and a modern health club. What remains constant is the spirit behind it all: warm Donegal hospitality, proudly offered in a place that has become part of the life of Letterkenny.

OUR HISTORY IS MADE BY OUR GUESTS

CLIMBING MOUNT ERRIGAL

Stand on the summit of the mountain that inspired our name.

Rising above the Derryveagh Mountains, Errigal is one of Donegal's most recognisable landmarks and the county's highest peak at 751 metres.

FROM THE HOTEL

Approximately 35-40 minutes by car to the dedicated car park on the R251.

THE ROUTE

Approximately 4.8 km return, following the constructed mountain path.

THE CLIMB

Around 525 metres of ascent; a good level of fitness and sure-footedness are required.

ALLOW

Up to 3.5 hours for the return climb, depending on pace, stops and weather.

PREPARE FOR THE MOUNTAIN

Check the mountain forecast and daylight hours before leaving; summit weather can change quickly. Wear sturdy walking boots and bring waterproofs, warm layers, water, food and a fully charged phone. Use the constructed path from the car park to the summit to protect the fragile, recovering habitat. The upper mountain has steep ground, uneven stone steps and loose rock; take particular care descending.

KNOW WHEN TO TURN BACK

Cloud, strong wind, rain or fading daylight can make Errigal significantly more difficult. If conditions deteriorate or anyone in your party is uncomfortable, turn back early.
